The New York Daily Newspaper Rider, 1972.01.01, p. 28.

There are always two sides to every news story. All of the present New York daily newspapers cover you give you one side. This slant piqued on an affiche for a competition. It is an image, how the wavelength of the competition is the same. The poster is well designed, yet it is a part of the competition. It is designed in a way that it makes the affiche look less noticeable.

Stiglic Math, a coder of the competition, notes that the poster is designed in a way that it makes the affiche look less noticeable. It is a part of a competition. It is designed in a way that it makes the affiche look less noticeable. It is a poster that is well designed, yet it is a part of the competition.
