Table of contents

1 Benelux ................................................................................................................................. 1
2 Schengen .............................................................................................................................. 1
3 European Union .................................................................................................................... 2
   3.1 Justice and Home Affairs (in general) ............................................................................. 2
   3.2 Police Cooperation and Europol .................................................................................... 4
   3.3 Eurojust ............................................................................................................................ 5
   3.4 Judicial Cooperation and Mutual Recognition ............................................................... 5
   3.5 Customs Cooperation ...................................................................................................... 7
   3.6 Harmonisation ................................................................................................................ 7
   3.7 EC Criminal Law Competence and Corpus Iuris ............................................................ 8
   3.8 EU LCS ............................................................................................................................. 9
   3.9 Human Rights and Procedural Guarantees ................................................................... 9
   3.10 Migration and Asylum ................................................................................................... 9

Benelux

Schengen

European Union

Justice and Home Affairs (in general)

- McMahon, R., 'Maastricht's third pillar: Load-bearing or purely decorative?', Legal issues of European integration, 1995, No. 1, 51-64.
Police Cooperation and Europol

Eurojust

Judicial Cooperation and Mutual Recognition

Bonn, M, 'Judicial cooperation under Title VI TEU: a first assessment in the light of practical experiences', in Justice and Home Affairs in the European

Customs Cooperation

Harmonisation

- Klip, A. and Van Der Wilt, H. Harmonisation and harmonising measures in criminal law. Amsterdam, 2002, Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences
EC Criminal Law Competence and Corpus Iuris

EULOCS

Human Rights and Procedural Guarantees

Migration and Asylum